RE:Nin and Trischler v. County of Suffolk et al
Docket No. 19-cv-01546 (GRB)(SIL)
Passalacqua and Klein v. County of Suffolk et al
Docket No. 19-cv-05738 (GRB)(SIL)

Dear Mr. Young:

I write in reference to the two matters listed above for which the firm of Harfenist Kraut & Perlstein has been appointed from the pro bono counsel list as counsel for the Plaintiffs.

I had previously emailed you on June 5, 2023, and requested that you email those portions of your file for these matters and specifically any discovery materials which were provided to you by the Defendants as well as any documents provided to you by the Plaintiffs. In response to my e-mail you indicated "I have a significant lien on this file. Prior to my relinquishment of files we would need to resolve that issue. One resolved I would turn over the voluminous records I hold."

I then wrote to you by letter dated June 7, 2023 (and e-mailed the same date) and addressed your claimed lien, but you have failed to respond to my letter, nor have you provided your former clients' files to date.

Please be advised that United States Magistrate Judge Locke has set this matter down for a hearing on July 31, 2023 at 1:30 PM to address your lien and has ordered that you appear in person. I have enclosed copies of the Orders in both cases as the Court has directed me to serve these upon you and to file proof of such service with the Court.

Please be guided accordingly.

Sincerely,
HARFENIST KRAUT & PERLSTEIN, LLP
